Foreword

We find it impossible to tell you in words all that we have gained from our four years in high school, so we invite you to look behind the pictures and read between the lines of this annual. Here you may become acquainted with the persons and activities that we know and love.

ADVERTISING

We, the Senior Class of Northampton High School, dedicate this edition of "The Torch" to Mrs. Jennie S. Mapp, whose friendly smile and cheerful manner bring joy to the hearts of all who are around her. We are deeply indebted to Mrs. Mapp for her sympathetic interest in each one of us, and we wish to express in this small way our appreciation.

With love,
Jennie S. Mapp

"Christmas at Home", the Dramatic Club Christmas play, was a fine production. We hope to follow it with a full length production in the spring. With an increased membership this year we hope to continue the good works carried on by the club in the past.

A major project of the club this year was the making of the toy animals shown in the picture above. The club turned these toys over to the Boy Scouts of Eastville, who in turn gave them to the County Welfare Committee to be distributed to needy children at Christmas time.

1953-1954

September

The last days of August

Have dwindled down to none;

The dawn of September

And school has just begun!

February

We trudged to school as ever,

With faces long and sad.

St. Valentine we honored,

And a dance we had.

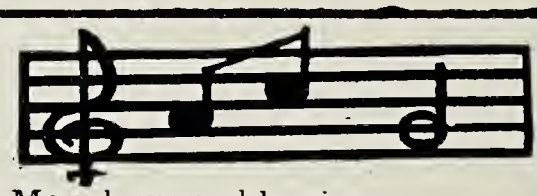
October

The football games were starting,

And all the boys were hep!

The Seniors got their class rings,

And happy faces kept!



March

The winds of March were blowing

The band was tuning up.

Concerts were in the planning

For a big band cup.

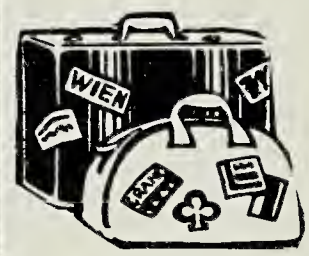
November

The Beta dance was here

And, oh, what fun we had!

The NHS-CHS game

Was the one real game we had.



April

Three trips were in the air;

Hi-Y, and Band, and Beta.

The place was all agog

While gathering all the data.

December

Old Santa came once more;

Xmas he said was near,

And after the Monogram dance,

We're filled with holiday cheer.

May

The Seniors present a play

As sort of a farewell gesture,

For it's near graduation

And teachers put on the pressure.

January

January exams!

The pupils fussed and fumed!

And oh how they studied

But ahead better days loomed.

June

The last days of school

Pass with many a tear

For the carefree Seniors

Who'll someday wish they were here!

Dear Virginia,

It really was fun knowing you this year. I didn't know what I was missing until I got to know you. We both as you know I still have you. If you will give this thing and study and in the [illegible] about getting you [illegible]. Outside of those things you're a pretty good kid.

Wish me luck with you [illegible] and I'll do the same for you.

That's my song - so I'll stop.

Hi ya Virginia!

Here is to one of my pals of N. H. S.

It has been fun knowing you these past eight years. I hope you wont forget all our good times together. Including the picnics and the lost ball.

I wish you all the luck in the world on everything you try to do.

you will make a very good wife for some lucky guy. I hope you will be happy with the one you choose. I am sure you will.

I hope I never forget the dress you wore at the May 15th party (5'4). You looked so cute in it, but I guess cute in anything you wear.

Lets not forget the many afternoons we have spent together. (playing ball)

I hope we will be able to go to the beach together this summer.

Best of luck in all you do.

A friend always of a wonderful friend.

(over)

Love ya always,

Carolyn Gladden

Lots of luck and best wishes to a very sweet friend. I will always enjoy your company.

Dear "Brainie"

I've had a lot of fun being in the same class with you this year. But please if we're in the same class next year, don't walk backwards, eat roses, etc. Remember that ~~time~~ we stayed up all night & your mother got mad at us. Boy that was sure some night.

Hope we will all be on the team tomorrow. But if we are we probably won't win.

I can't think of anything to write so I guess I'll stop messing up your annual. Sorry but I had to use another pen.

Hope I'll see you this summer.

Love Ya,

~~Tommy~~ (please excuse)

Tommy

Best wishes
to a great gal.
And a sweet friend.
Hope to be in some classes with you next year and the 3 years after.
Love ya much,
Sandra

Good luck to
